They requested the city adjust his training schedule to allow for the time he has already served as a police officer. They recommended the program be shortened by 2 to 6 months.

RICHEY PROBATION:

Lee recommended the city adopt a policy of waiving the 90 day probationary period if an employee has worked 500 hours in the previous year as a part time employee. This would eliminate the problems which were encountered with Dispatcher Beth Richey.

It was also noted that Richey's probation period ends the latter part of September, so it is too late to waive it.

Moved by LEE, seconded by PRICE to refer this to the Personnel Committee and for them to establish guidelines that would eliminate the gray areas.
