LINDA PHIPPS
NATURE CENTER:

Linda Phipps with the Nature Center came before the commission stating the lease on the Nature Center Building would be up in approximately one and a half years (1 ½), and if possible would like to extend the lease on the building for ten (10) years. Commission agreed the city attorney would look at the lease and take it up at a later date.

Also presented was a slide show on the work being accomplished at the Nature Center.

BEN METCALF
EAGLE SCOUT:

Ben Metcalf Eagle Scout presented six (6) survival kits to the city.

PAUL NOLAN
BAD (BULLDOGS AGAINST DRUGS):

Paul Nolan requested to purchase a 77 Suburban for a project called BAD (Bulldogs against drugs), which donations would be taken to fix the vehicle up.

Commissioner Davies stated why do they not just give the vehicle for this purpose. City Attorney, Kevin Cure said it was okay to give the suburban to BAD if the value was so minimal it would cost more to repair or store it.

Moved by Shoemaker, seconded by Hardman to give the 77 Suburban at the city barn to Paul Nolan for BAD Association. Motion declared carried.

AYES: Donaldson, Hardman, Shoemaker, Davies, Oglesby
